License Management System

Description:

The License Management System is a desktop software or application made for software owners to make a serial key and activate products. It makes encrypted key for some specific software according to the given algorithm.

Features:

Following are the features of License Management System:

- Triple DES Encrypted Key
- Fully Secure
- Easy to manage
- Manage records of activated users
- Secured with Master Password